Title of the Program	"Navigating the art of Teaching: A holistic approach"
Date	03.08.2024 to 04.08.2024
Program Objectives	Induction Program for "Newly Appointed Teachers" The goal of the first year of teaching should be to establish the framework and resources necessary for new instructors to succeed, develop into skilled educators, and begin their careers in education with a positive outlook. The following four moral imperatives force participation in the induction process: The principal as administrator of the college plays a significant role in setting up the framework that will support beginning teachers to succeed in the profession and have a successful year 1) promote successful acclimatization to the profession 2) lower attrition among new teachers 3) boost retention; and 4) benefit the college community as a whole.
Summary	The Program was conducted for two days from, at D Block seminar Hall. The resource persons exhorted the participants to fully utilize the inputs in a way to impart better teaching methodology to the learners who expect latest teaching techniques. The initiative was indeed successful.
